EXPERIENCE THE LIFESTYLE OUR RESIDENTS ENJOY EVERY DAY

"Before I moved to Wilshire Estates in November 2021, I was certainly hesitant to make the transition from my home to a retirement community. When I initially began my search, I felt I was not ready. I had lived in my home for many years and was very involved in my community. I realized that I was quite lonely in my 4-bedroom home and needed a change. I toured 4 times and even came for a trial stay before deciding to move. Since I've moved to Wilshire Estates, I'm no longer lonely and I'm surrounded by new friends. The community feels like home and I no longer have to worry about housework, grocery shopping or meal preparation. If you are a senior living alone and you want close friendships and are tired of being lonely, then this is the place for you."

~ Gloria Logan (Wilshire Estates - Silver Spring, MD)

"I no longer have to concern myself about property maintenance or living alone. I enjoy the many new acquaintances I've made. My children don't have to worry about my well-being, and I can go and come as I please. If I don't make an appearance at meals, someone will check on me. I chose Summit Glen above others because of the family."

~ Joe Conway (Summit Glen - Colorado Springs, CO)

"It feels like home. My apartment is beautiful, and I love sitting on my balcony. Everyone is so nice, and I have met some great people. I was referred by existing residents, and I am glad I chose The Lodge at Wake Forest. All the meals are tastefully prepared, and I especially enjoy the snacks that are available throughout the day. There is so much to do, I can't pick just one favorite."

~ Bob Reichard (The Lodge at Wake Forest - Wake Forest, NC)

"I had heard about Willow Creek from a patient of mine. I called for my parents, and the managers Glenn and Val, invited us to meet them the same day. I instantly decided that this was the right home. Management is beyond attentive, the chef and food are amazing, the servers are patient and understanding, and the housekeeping is thorough. The transportation service offers pretty much every need that the residents have. My father's health started to decline over a few months, and we eventually decided to move my parents to an assisted living community. We instantly missed everything about Willow Creek, and unfortunately, within 48 hours of moving, my father passed away. My mom decided to move back to Willow Creek, and she was welcomed with open arms. It's now several months later, and my mom has formed lifelong bonds with other residents, participates in outings with a wonderful activity director, and now calls Willow Creek home."

~ David Block (Willow Creek - Chesapeake, VA)

Resident Travel Program

Retirement at Hawthorn Senior Living gives you the freedom to live life to the fullest. It's about seeing new places, meeting new friends, and creating experiences and moments that you'll cherish forever. This is what our Resident Travel Program is all about.

We strive to give you everything you need to feel happy and comfortable in your home, but we also realize there is more to life than staying in one place. If you want to get out and explore new places or visit family across the country, our Resident Travel Program gives you that opportunity. With over 60 communities across the United States, you can have all the comforts of home while enjoying the pleasures of a vacation.

As a resident of a Hawthorn community, you are eligible to stay up to seven nights per visit*, per community in a comfortable guest suite at any of our communities. Your stay includes all your meals and you'll be able to participate in enrichment programs and activities just like you would at home – all at no additional cost.

You still have so much to experience, so enjoy life and live well at Hawthorn Senior Living through our Resident Travel Program!

You are home, no matter where the road may take you.
